WHAT ARE GIRLS WHO CODE CLUBS?

Girls Who Code is a non-profit organization dedicated to closing the gender gap in technology.

The Club is Girls Who Code's FREE after-school computer science program!

WHAT IS GIRLS WHO CODE HQ?

Girls Who Code HQ (generally just called "HQ") is the official platform for all Girls Who Code programs where we provide resources to our members, including our unique curriculum, coding activities, and more.

While Girls Who Code does not require parent permission to register students on HQ, we are aware that many schools require parent/guardian notification prior to registration. Due to this, we ask students under 14 years old to register on HQ with the assistance and oversight of their parents/ guardians. See below for instructions on how to do so.

HOW TO REGISTER YOUR CHILD ON GIRLS WHO CODE HQ:

Step 1: Scan the QR code or go to hq.girlswhocode.com and click Sign up. Enter "United States" and your child's birthdate. Then choose "I want to join as a Club member."

Step 2: Enter your child's full name and email address, select a password, and agree to the Terms of Use and Privacy Policy. If your child doesn't have an email address they can create a username for them.

Step 3: Enter your information. You will receive an email with additional parent/guardian information.

Step 4: Click on Join Your Club and enter your child's Club code.

YOUR CHILD'S CLUB CODE IS: _____ (FACILITATOR WILL PROVIDE).

Step 5: Confirm that your child's Club details are correct, fill out demographic information, and complete your registration.

If you're unable to complete these steps, please fill out the permission slip on the next page to allow the Club Facilitator to register your child on HQ.
