TEEN ADVISORY BOARD

pitcolib.org

What is the Teen Advisory Board?

A group of teens who help decide which books, movies, and games will be added to the library and what programs will be offered. Open to students in grades 6-12

Expectations:

- Commit to a minimum of one hour each month
- Participate in library programs and volunteer time to help make sure teen events run smoothly
- Act as ambassadors for the library

Benefits:

- Influence selection of books, materials, and programming that focus on young adults
 - Be among the first to access new young adult materials
 - National Honor Society/Community Service hours
 - Free food at TAB meetings
